

Information about how to apply for a recognised details certificate

(Change of sex certificate for persons born overseas)

Births Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995

Eligibility

Under Part 5A of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 a person who is 18 or above, and:

- who is an Australian citizen or permanent resident of Australia, and
- who lives, and has lived in NSW for at least one year, and

- who has undergone a sex affirmation procedure, and
 - whose birth is not registered in Australia,
- may apply for registration of their change of sex. Upon registration of a change of sex the person may apply to the Registrar for issue of a recognised details certificate.

Instructions

1 Complete all sections

Use black ink and write in BLOCK letters.

All corrections must be initialled. Do not use white out.

2 Identification documents (ID)

- You must provide at least three (3) forms of ID, including photo ID. Overseas documents must be translated into English by a NAATI accredited translator. The Registry will not accept faxed applications or faxed identification documents.
- All photocopies of ID must be certified by an authorised witness as being true and correct copies of the originals. The following persons can certify your ID.
 - Justice of the Peace
 - Notary Public
 - Legal Practitioner (holding a current practising certificate)
 - A person authorised to administer an oath under section 26 of the Oaths Act 1900.

3 Application and Statutory Declarations

- Complete and submit all sections along with appropriate ID and payment. Incomplete applications may cause delays and be returned, or refused.
 - One (1) Application to record a change of sex,
 - Two (2) supporting statutory declarations to register a change of sex from either an Australian registered medical practitioner, or a person authorised to practice medicine by law of a jurisdiction outside of Australia.
- An authorised witness who takes and receives a statutory declaration must confirm your identity before the declaration is made. If you have not known the authorised witness for at least 12 months, the witness must sight one identity document (original or certified copy), such as an Australian passport, Australian birth certificate, Australian or foreign driver's licence, an Australian citizenship certificate, a pension card issued by Centrelink, or an Australian Medicare card.
- A copy of a document may be certified as a true copy of the original only by a person (other than the authorised witness) authorised to take and receive statutory declarations.

4 Payment details

- The fee for registering a change of sex includes the issue of a new birth certificate.
