Administering agency

Office for Regional Youth, Department of Regional NSW.

Purpose

In the last 24 months, communities in regional NSW have endured multiple natural disasters. The NSW Storms and Floods event (March 2021) have had an additional catastrophic impact on communities.

78 LGAs have been declared for the NSW Storms and Floods (AGRN 954 and AGRN 960), many of which were impacted by previous disasters such as the 2019-20 bushfires, compounding recovery needs.

The resilience of young people has been tested by multiple natural disasters. The compounding impacts of natural disasters have increased mental health issues among children and young people and increased the need for additional support. Research shows that natural disasters significantly affect young people. Since 2019, there has been a marked increase in access to mental health support among children and young people. The experiences of children and young people are different and unique to adults and they require additional and targeted recovery support.

The Children and Young People Wellbeing Recovery Program will fund projects in storm and flood affected communities to:

- improve access to programs and services to improve mental health and wellbeing of children and young people
- provide programs and resources to improve recovery and resilience of children and young people to respond to the impacts of the floods and natural disaster
- strengthen community networks and connection to support the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people
- build community capacity and capability to support children and young people to recover post the floods and natural disaster.

The program will be delivered by the Office for Regional Youth, Department of Regional NSW.
