

Adding a parent's details to a pre adoptive birth registration

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 (BDMR Act)

Eligibility

To apply to add a parent to a birth registration, the birth must be registered in NSW.

Add a father/parent

- In some circumstances the Registry can add a biological father to the pre adoptive birth registration when the subject of the birth applies for the details to be added.
- The Registry may require a Parentage Testing DNA report or a court order to confirm paternity. DNA result evidence must be provided from laboratories authorised under the Family Law Regulations to conduct DNA parentage testing. Further information on authorised laboratories can be found at www.ag.gov.au/families-and-marriage/families/children-and-family-law
- The Registry may ask for further evidence to support the application, such as documentation from the time of the adoption.

Identification

The applicant must provide at least three forms of ID from the Category lists:

- One form of ID must confirm current residential address.

Original ID can be certified by one of the following:
